

Dear representative of the partner institution,

Along with the need to ultimately share the final dates on MB in Skopje - October 24, and QCB meeting in London - November, 17 and would like to ask for your full attention regarding the following:

Please nominate for two of the contributors from each of the partner institutions for the envisaged CABUFAL publication under the working title: "Best Practices in Teaching EU Law", by September 10th 2018.

As for the content of the contributions, if there are no additional suggestions, I trust that it would be best to proceed with the concept summarized in the email sent before the summer vacation by prof. Savkovic. Hence, each contributor would publish syllabus of one of the courses from his/her home institution, as well as additional elaboration of the teaching/course unites, methods and key challenges as he/she sees fit. The single limitation would be to "contain" each contribution to 4500 to 6000 characters (without space). The courses elected by contributors should deal entirely or to a large extend with EU law.

I would also like to ask our management board members to nominate representative of their partner institution for the editorial board that will be overseeing the entire drafting and publication process, by September 10th 2018.

Yours sincerely,

Aneta Spaic
